Lisbon, 24th—Three thousand Portuguese, citizens have left cards at the French and Spanish Legations, to show their appreciation of the sympathy of those countries for Portugal in her dispute with England. There was a great meeting in the Trinidad Theatre last night, to raise funds for national defence. A Committee of 120 citizens and army and navy officers was named to collect subscriptions. Duke Pomarca presided. Many most violent speeches against England were made; and France and Spain were praised. Much money were raised from those present.

London, 25th—The British Minister in Lisbon has telegraphed to the Admiralty that he does not want the steam yacht Enchantress, which lay at his orders in the Tagus, to communicate with the ironclads outside held ready for action. This shows that the difficulty is being settled diplomatically, and that the squadron is not required.

THE ARGENTINE PUZZLE.

London, Dec. 23rd.

English people are at present sorely perplexed to understand how things are at Buenos Ayres. Every mail brings news of greater depreciation of currency and bigger failures; one was reported yesterday for £800,000 sterling. At the same time Argentines seem rolling in wealth: one pays £12,000 to the Duke of Westminster for a horse, another buys a ducal mansion in the Green Park and pays £60,000 to an upholsterer, another throws about money at Nice or Monte Carlo, another shews a deposit note in the Bank of France for 30 million francs all made at B. Ayres in 4 years. And so on. The very papers from Buenos Ayres which describe the terrible financial crisis that prevails publish "remates" in which Mr. Kemmis or Mr. Casey sells horses at prices averaging £1,500 each.

This astounding contradiction of circumstances baffles the ordinary observer, and he lays down his Times or Economist or Buenos Ayres STANDARD with the feeling of a man in a dream that knows not whether "visions are about" or not. But there is really no contradiction whatever. It is simply History repeating itself: the South Sea bubble or John Law over again. Pythagoras taught the transmigration of souls, and if one were not a Christian he would be inclined to accept that theory, and say that Aislabie or Law had turned up again under another name at Buenos Ayres. If you look up the annals of 1719 in France or 1720 in England you will see many things similar to what we now behold in the River Plate. The shares in Law's bank rose from 100 livres to 2,000, and people made fortunes in a week, sometimes in a day. The French nation became, not intoxicated, but delirious with joy over the prodigious increase of wealth. In 4 years Law's bank spread such a tide of riches and affluence over the country that houses and lands rose to 5 times their previous value. Law was worshipped as a public benefactor; dukes and duchesses sat in his antechamber, waiting for his rising, that they might get Mississippi shares or any other shares, for everything he touched turned to gold.

Law's system was "the more paper-money the better": he was in fact the inventor of Cedulas, and maintained that a nation had the right to issue notes up to half the value on all it possessed, houses, lands, cattle, furniture, roads, bridges, lighthouses etc. This system is fully reduced to practice by the Mortgage Banks in Buenos Ayres, for the Cedula is another form of inconvertible notes. The more Cedulas you emit the more worthless they become, and hence the greater nominal value of houses, lands, horses and everything. And as values thus rise, the demand for more Cedulas increases. It has been truly said in Buenos Ayres that the name which will evoke tears of blood in years to come will be that of Francisco Balbin, the founder of the Cedula Bank. And yet he was an upright man, of good intentions, and the bank got on pretty well in his life-time. But he perhaps did not foresee how easily these banks can be made potent for evil, how they can produce a conflagration that must, in a manner, expend itself before being extinguished.

John Law died in a hospice at Venice: Aislabie (chancellor of the Exchequer) was expelled from the House of Commons and ended his days in banishment. But, the evil which they did was not interred with their bones. Thousands of families were beggared. The moral which is written on the tombstones of Law and Aislabie is simple enough: "beware of unlimited paper-money and fortunes raised in an hour." There is no royal road to honest wealth but industry. As for making fortunes by betting on the rise or fall of stocks, if one man make a fortune another must lose, and so there is no gain to the community. When I read that property has risen 40 or 60 per cent in a place in a few months, or that the shareholders of this or that concern have trebled their fortune by issuing new shares, "watering the stock," I say to myself the country is no richer, there is no accretion of wealth. But if I read that a new house has been built, a new road made, or even a new coat of paint put on the Old Mole, I recognize that something has been added to the wealth of Buenos Ayres. The sooner you disabuse your minds of the error that wealth consists in Cedulas, shin-plasters and Bolsa quotations the better.

President Carnot yesterday held the customary New Year's-day reception. In reply to the speech of the Papal Nuncio on behalf of the Diplomatic Corps, M. Carnot announced the intention of his Government to pursue a policy of peace.

The Royal Castle of Laeken, the suburban residence of the King and Queen of the Belgians, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The plate was saved, but all the Royal art collections were destroyed, together with many other precious articles. Princess Clementine, who was taking lunch at the time, succeeded in making her escape, but her governess, Mdlle. Drancourt, returned to her apartments, with a view to secure some of her property, and was suffocated in the attempt.

Sir M. Hicks Beach addressed a large meeting at Leamington last evening. He said the very things which Mr. Parnell had demanded for Ireland in his recent speech were what the Government had proposed; and if they had not been passed it was because of the languid support they received from the Parnell Party. A Home Rule Parliament, Sir Michael maintained, could not do for Ireland what could be accomplished by the Imperial Parliament.

The Forest-gate Industrial Schools, which accommodate pauper children from Whitechapel and Poplar, were yesterday morning the scene of a calamitous fire. Shortly after midnight smoke was discovered issuing from the lower portions of a building jutting out from the main block, on the upper floors of which were dormitories for ninety children. Eighty-four boys were actually sleeping in the building, and of these fifty-eight were rescued the remaining twenty-six being either suffocated or burned to death, in spite of the exertions of the officials to save them. The building where the fire originated was destroyed; but the main block was not seriously damaged. The fire is attributed to the pipe from the stove in the store-room becoming over-heated.

The Gas Stokers' Strike Organisation has withdrawn the pickets from the neighbourhood of the stations in South London, and placed them on the Thames, with a view to intercept the supply of coal for the South Metropolitan Gas Company; but none of the crews of the colliers have responded to the Union call to strike work.

At Manchester yesterday Mr. Atkinson won the Club Hunters' Steeple-chase with Alba, Mr. T. G. Arthur the Hunters' Steeple-chase with Passe par Tout, Mr. T. Green the Selling Hurdle-race Plate with Lente, Mr. H. Hall the Manchester Handicap Steeple-chase with Macpherson, Mr. Spalding the Wednesday Selling Hurdle-race with Eversfield, and Major Joicey the New Year Handicap Hurdle-race with Proteus.

The three children of a Mr. Whorlow, living at Wood-green, went to a party on Tuesday night, from which they returned late. Yesterday morning Mrs. Whorlow went to the district police-station, and said she had murdered her son, a boy of eight years. An officer went to the house and found that the child's throat had been cut, but that no one in the house knew what had happened, the two sisters who were sleeping in the same room having heard nothing. The manner of the unhappy mother indicates that her mind is unhinged.

The Marquis de Leuville was charged at the Marlborough-street Police-court yesterday with inciting a number of men to create a riot at the Princess's Theatre. A man named Vincent, who was in the Defendant's service in November, said his master gave him money and told him to engage men to hiss a piece called "The Gold Craze," because it contained an impersonation which the defendant thought was meant to caricature him. The men made a great disturbance at the Theatre for three nights. After a long hearing, the case was adjourned.

Mr. Edward Palmer, builder, was charged at the Wandsworth Police-court yesterday with building a house, in South-Wimbledon, with defective materials, and in other respects disregarding the local bye-laws. A specimen of the mortar used was produced, and the Surveyor to the Local Board said it was rubbish, and not mortar at all. By the use of such stuff the Defendant would save about seven pounds a house. He was fined seven pounds, and ordered to pay two guineas as costs.

The Stock Exchange was closed yesterday. Quotations for money were heavy in the Discount Market. Three month's bank bills were quoted at 4⅞ per cent., and money at from 5 to 6 per cent.

Lord Salisbury passed a good night on Tuesday, and yesterday morning there was a decided abatement in the feverish symptoms. His Lordship felt stronger, and the improvement was maintained throughout the day. In the morning he despatched and received correspondence connected with the business of the Foreign Office. The improvement was fully maintained last night, and for the first time for a week Lord Salisbury took solid nourishment freely. His condition was so far improved that the tenants' ball, which was given at Hatfield House last night, did not affect him. In accordance with the desire of Lord Salisbury, no bulletins have been issued respecting his condition. The Queen and the Prince of Wales have requested that the latest information shall be telegraphed to them morning and evening. All the Ambassadors have telegraphed expressing their regret at the Premier's illness, and similar expressions have been communicated from the Courts of foreign countries, including Portugal and France.

O'SHEA V. PARNELL.

AN EVENT WHICH WILL ECLIPSE THE PARNELL COMMISSION IN INTEREST.

It became known on Saturday that a petition for divorce was filed on the 24th inst. by Wm. Henry O'Shea, of 124, Victoria-street, Westminster, and Justice of the Peace in County Clare, against his wife, Mr. Charles Stuart Parnell being co-respondent. The grounds alleged are the infidelity of Mrs. O'Shea during the period from April, 1886, up to the date of the petition, at the undermentioned places: Eltham; 34, York Terrace; Regent's-park; Brighton; and Addington, Sussex. No damages are claimed.

A reporter having called upon Captain O'Shea at his rooms, 124 Victoria-street, Westminster, yesterday morning, the Captain at once frankly stated that the above news was true.

"There is a rumour from a well-informed source," said the reporter, "that you have instituted an action for a divorce, but owing to the gravity of the announcement it was thought but courteous to yourself not to publish it without corroboration from your own mouth."

Captain O'Shea looked straight into the reporter's face and said: "I may as well state that it is true."

"And that Mr. Charles Stewart Parnell is the co-respondent?"

"That is true, too. But how the deuce did you hear of it?"

The reporter did not explain.

"And is it also true", he pressed on, "that you do not claim damages?"

"Of course I do not," said Captain O'Shea. He added, "I am much obliged to you for having the courtesy to ask me before publishing the fact."

Captain O'Shea is a typical Irishman. Though possessing a good deal more of the dandified air than the majority of Irish members of Parliament, everything about him—his soft voice, genial, ruddy face—all proclaim his nationality. Mrs. Katherine O'Shea is the daughter of the Rev. Sir John Page-Wood, Bart., of Hatherley House, Gloucester, and a sister of Lieutenant-General Sir Evelyn Wood, V.C. She married the petitioner in 1867, and has borne him five children. The Captain formerly belonged to the 18th Hussars. He has long been a Justice of the Peace for the County Clare.

The news of the divorce suit will not surprise those who have been behind the scenes during the last three or four years. Some such "denouement" as this has been impending for a long time past, and on several occasions the good offices of friends have been called into requisition with a view of averting the scandal. Mr., or Captain O'Shea has threatened legal proceedings on several occasions, and many of the followers of Mr. Parnell have been aware of the fact, and it has not tended to sweeten the intercourse between the "uncrowned King" and his more or less obedient subjects. From time to time, however, the explosion has been smothered or postponed, and if it is to come at length, it is almost a matter of certainty that some awkward revelations must take place.

In the early days of Parliament of 1886, a well-dressed, somewhat showy-looking man made his appearance on the Irish benches. He generally wore a frock coat, with a flower in the button-hole, and was altogether very unlike the careless, somewhat slipshod group who usually represent the Nationalists in the House, and who are meant for use rather than for ornament. Who was the stranger, thus attired as for a bridal party? It was Captain O'Shea. He had, for the second or third time, coveted the honour of a seat in Parliament, and Mr. Parnell, being, perhaps, in an obliging humour just then, had found one for him. But it was not done without difficulty. The constituency singled out for the honour had not at first sight taken very kindly to Mr. O'Shea. It had to be coaxed, perhaps some pressure was brought to bear upon it. Several of the Irish members protested against O'Shea's reappearance in their midst. They had got rid of him once, and thought he would return no more. But there he was again. The redoubtable Tim Healy was exceedingly wrath, and made things warm for O'Shea. He is a very ugly man to come across when he is angry, is Tim Healy.

The close of this performance was not pleasant, and it came a good deal sooner than the gallant Captain had anticipated. He did not find himself among very congenial surroundings. His countrymen did not take him to their hearts and shed tears of joy over him. On the contrary, he was treated to a very liberal allowance of cold shoulder, and some very unkind remarks were made in his hearing. When he went into the lobbies, he was not entertained with agreeable conversation. The great authority of the leader himself failed to protect his friend from usage which no one need be particularly anxious to encounter. One day it was announced that Mr. O'Shea had resigned. Why? For the same reason that he had entered Parliament: because he wanted to.

In October last Mr. O'Shea made his appearance as a witness on the Parnell Commission. Great revelations were expected. But nothing very wonderful came. It had been rumoured that the Captain had obtained from his wife letters gravely compromising Mr. Parnell. Whether such letters are in existence or not it is impossible to say, at any rate, they were not produced before the three Judges. Mr. Parnell occasionally cast a piercing glance at O'Shea as he gave his evidence, and the ex-M.P. calmly returned it. Evidently there was no love lost between them. Captain O'Shea swore that Mr. Joseph Chamberlain and a person named Houston had arranged for him to appear as a witness for the Times, an interesting fact, but having no bearing in the present case.

And now the little comedy or drama is to advance into another act. A divorce suit must, at least, be a source of great annoyance to Mr. Parnell—to say nothing of the lady. Will it be defended? That seems a curious question to ask about a divorce case, but the truth is the whole affair is very curious. The "Eltham business" has long been talked of. One night a piece of paper was picked up in the lobby of the House of Commons and opened by the finder. It was from a lady to the Irish leader. Some people say that it was shown to Captain O'Shea. However that may be, it was talked about all over the place in less than half an hour. But there may have been nothing in the bit of paper after all, or perhaps only an address or an invitation. Yet such incidents as this set people talking, and now they will talk still more. Who is innocent, and who is guilty, it would be rash indeed to predict. But we may expect to see some of the Nationalist papers speak out their minds freely about O'Shea. Now that he has cast off all disguise, and entered boldly upon the war path, there will be a smash, and the great "Eltham Mystery" will be cleared up after many promised 'revelations', which ended in revealing nothing.

THE DIVORCE ACTION BY CAPTAIN O'SHEA.
MR. PARNELL TALKS TO A "FREEMAN" INTERVIEWER.

The London correspondent of the Freeman's Journal has interviewed Mr. Parnell. He had not heard that Captain O'Shea had taken proceedings against him, but he said Captain O'Shea had been threatening to take them for three years. He, Mr. Parnell, had reliable information that Captain O'Shea had been incited to bring the action now pending in the interest of the London Times, in order to diminish the damages likely to be given in his libel action. Mr. Parnell had constantly resided in Mrs. O'Shea's house from the end of 1880 to 1886.

The Rev. J. W. Fleming B. D. will preach on 2nd prox. at St. Andrew's, Chascomus, noon, and at Chascomus 4 p.m.

LATEST FROM RIO.

THE BOUNDARY TREATY.
NATIONAL HOLIDAYS.

(From the Rio News.)

Rio, Jan. 20th 1890.

The minister of foreign affairs leaves for Montevideo, to sign in that city, together with the minister of foreign affairs of the Argentine Republic, and the two plenipotentiaries, Srs. Henrique Moreno and Barão de Alencar, the treaty that puts an end to the periodic question of the boundaries between the two American states.

It is well to know that the two illustrious negotiators neither go to debate, nor to arrange the clauses of the treaty.

These were already studied by the two cabinets, the Brazilian and the Argentine, and it was only after an agreement had been arrived at, that one and the other government decided to celebrate it at the capital of the neighboring republic.

The perio'c question was finally decided by a direct agreement between the two governments, which is highly to the honor of both, for this fact is evidence that the true American spirit presided at the negotiations.

It can not be sustained either on juridical grounds, or on those of fact, that there has been a surrender of territory on the part of one, or the other, of the powers. When all the territory was in dispute and both claimed its exclusive possession, in the name of rights derived from obsolete treaties and obscure geographical explorations, what may be deduced is that, to reach the referred-to agreement, both governments ignored tradition and the pretension based upon historical elements, to agree upon, within the boundaries of facts, the establishment of a frontier line as nearly natural as possible, and in due respect to the "ut possidetis" real and recognized.

As the press has already stated, the principal clauses of the treaty were discussed and decided here after successive conferences, in which all the members of the provisional government took part under the presidency of the illustrious chief of state.

These are no new clauses for debate, nor to be established at the diplomatic conference to be held at Montevideo.

What the minister of foreign affairs goes to do is to simply sign the treaty already agreed to between the two governments.

Whatever may be the clauses agreed upon between the provisional government of the United States of Brazil and the government of the Argentine Republic for the celebration of a boundary treaty, one victory is already secured for the Brazilian nation.

Up to November 15th, under the monarchical regime and the empire of the constitution then in force, it was the executive power, it was the personality of the Emperor, that possessed the extraordinary faculty of obliging the nation, through treaties and international compromises, from which there might result an onus or damages of the most serious description, without any chance that the Brazilian people could correct possible errors on the part of the negotiators of these treaties.

With the republican regime the practice can not exist, and we know that the provisional government, conscious of its mission and of its responsibility, has resolved to decide no definitive treaty, to assume no international compromise, without submitting it to the sanction of the national vote, expressed by its legitimate representatives.

Under such conditions, it is made clear at once that the negotiations entrusted to the minister of foreign affairs, although closed by the conditions of an amicable arrangement with the assent of all the members of the provisional government, is a matter that will be treated "ad referendum", and that the treaty resulting from these negotiations will be obligatory and definite only after its approval and ratification by the Brazilian nation through its representatives.

By decree dated on the 14th inst., the following days are declared legal holidays:

January 1st; consecrated to the commemoration and confraternity of humanity.

April 21st; consecrated to the commemoration of the patriarchs of Brazilian independence re-united in Tiradentes.

May 3rd; consecrated to the commemoration of the discovery of Brazil.

May 13th; consecrated to the confraternity of Brazilians [abolition of slavery].

July 14th; consecrated to the commemoration of the republic, of the Liberty and of the independence of the American nations. (!)

September 7th; consecrated to the commemoration of the independence of Brazil.

October 12th; consecrated to the commemoration of the discovery of America.

November 2nd; consecrated to the general commemoration of the dead.

November 15th; consecrated to the commemoration of the Brazilian fatherland.

The times certainly have changed! On the 17th the cashier of the telegraph bureau was placed under arrest, and an examination of his books showed a defalcation of 179,890$988. His examination led to the arrest of the late director-general, Barao de Capanema, once so powerful, on the following day, who on examination admitted that about 110,000$ had been taken from the public funds at his disposal for his private use, the balance being drawn by other parties. He tries to excuse the crime by pleading losses from emancipation, theft, etc. The Baron was released on bail next day.

The sixtieth birthday—literally speaking—of the Brazilian Republic was celebrated on the 15th by a grand naval parade formed by some 900 sailors and marines, with rapid-firing guns and mitrailleuses. The force first complimented the Minister of Marine, Rear-Admiral Wandenkolk, who was present at the Club Naval, and a salute of 19 guns was fired. It then proceeded to the Provisional Government House to compliment General Deodoro, when 21 guns were fired. There were considerable crowds in the streets passed through by the force, and various houses showed bunting and other decorations.

Sr. Francisco de Paula Mayrink, president of the Banco de Credito Real do Brazil and of the Banco Predial, a director of the Sorocabana Railway and of the Banco Constructor, of which he was one of the founders, has been charged by the Minister of Finance to organize the great bank for the central district. The first effect of the news was to put up the shares of the Banco Constructor from 30$ to 50$ each.

The immigrant arrivals last year numbered 65,161, distributed as follows:—

At Rio de Janeiro...	45,700
Santos	17,797
Victoria.....	1,664

During the same year 8,345 third-class passengers left Rio de Janeiro alone for foreign destinations.

MORE ABOUT THE TREATY.

Montevideo 24th.

My dear Friend,

Our young friend (Scevola) is in prison. He was arrested last night in the Hotel Paris, while dining with Dr O'Brien of the Nacion. You must know the Misiones Treaty, a unique document, has been stolen, and from the confession of several waiters who appear to have been in his pay, there can be no doubt that he secured it. In any case he refuses to give it up, and as the Treaty is to be signed to-morrow, you can imagine the fix of the Ministers. He states that he does not consider it right the Treaty should be signed unless the Argentine people be consulted and made acquainted with every detail of the demarcation. Not even the ministers know exactly the course of the boundary line, and for the next fifty years probably none will know how Brazil and the Argentine Republic stand in regard to the possession of Misiones. The thing is more serious than you think, for our young friend won't listen to anything. Baron A went down on his knees to beseech him to tell him where he had stowed away the Treaty, the only result being that he challenged the baron to a duel, threatening, to use his own words, "to exterminate the poet and diplomat at one stroke. Don Eduardo and myself have been requested to act as seconds, and the Baron, with great courage and firmness, wanted to fight the duel two hours after the signing of the Treaty. But this ingenious diplomatic way of obtaining the document did not take, and our young friend proposed the duel should be fought at once, and he would deliver up the Treaty on the conclusion of the duel. But this did not take either, as the Baron did not see his way to it. After serving the empire so well, he might have made this little sacrifice for the Republic.

Telegraph down at once. Perhaps you can persuade him to give up the Treaty.

Yours truly,

Col. C. G.

Railway Items.

Mr. Benito Villanueva has resigned his post on the National Railway Board.

The altered plans of the first six kilometres of the railway from 9 de Julio to San Rafael have been approved by the Government. This line is Messrs. John G. Meiggs Son and Co.'s concession. We may add that the National Railway Board have advised the Government to return to these gentlemen 100,000 dollars in Series B. Cedulas deposited by them at the time of the signing of the contract for the construction of the Bahia Blanca and North-Western.

An idea of the wholesale manner in which the La Plata Legislature have voted railway-concessions may be gathered from the fact that the Provincial Government want to communicate with two concession aires whose residences are unknown!

We learn from General Osborne that there is no truth in the report of the sale of his concession for a railway across the Paraguayan Chaco. He is the sole concessionaire and represents an influential syndicate of capitalists. The works of the railway, as we already, announced, will be commenced in April, and the surveying staff, who have concluded the surveys, state that the camps to the very frontier of Bolivia are as fertile as any in Entre Rios.

The ordinary general meeting of the Argentine great Western was held on Dec. 30 at Winchester House, Old Broad-street. Sir George Russell, M. P., who presided moved the adoption of the report, stating that the difficulties which the board had had to contend with—the unremunerative tariff, the insufficiency of rolling stock and locomotives, and the unsatisfactory quality of the water—had been somewhat underrated. They had, however, received the gratifying intelligence that the President had authorised an increase in the tariff rate of 50 per cent, pending the final settlement between the company and the Government. He had no doubt that ultimately they would arrive at a fair and reasonable settlement as to the tariff to be charged. The question of fuel had also been a matter of some difficulty and embarrassment; but the directors trusted that the discovery of petroleum would afford a cheaper and more satisfactory fuel supply in the future. A locomotive fitted with experimental apparatus for petroleum had been sent out; and if it was successful the difficulty would be overcome. Nothing had occurred during the year to alter or diminish the favourable opinions which he expressed at the last meeting. All the information they received tended more and more to convince the directorate that the traffic only required to be properly dealt with to be remunerative. He confidently believed that they had now turned the corner, and that they had before them a prosperous career. For some reason the company had not yet received the payment of the guarantee from the Government, but he believed it would be paid shortly. The directors regretted that, owing to the deficiency on the working account, it was not practicable to pay a dividend on the preferred stock, but this dividend being cumulative would be paid out of the first available profits.

Mr. F. W. Lawrence seconded the adoption of the report, which was carried.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Every soul in town looked younger yesterday after the rain. Had the heat continued twenty four hours longer, there would have been funerals. One of our best subscribers, driven to desperation, slept on Thursday night with his head on the balcony of his bedroom and his feet in a tub of cold water. The result has been a rousing attack of influenza.

It was announced yesterday that Minister Bocayuva will not be here till Wednesday, as he has to take pot luck with President Tajes on Monday night.

We are asked to make enquiries as to the whereabouts of Mr. Charles Scott, of Mt. Pleasant Avenue, Dublin, who arrived here on the 6th October last, and is supposed to have gone far South. His mother is very anxious at not hearing from him.

Another dreadful crime took place in Calle Artes yesterday morning, when a French cook of the Cafe Filip fired three revolver shots into his wife's body as they lay in bed together, and then blew his own brains out. Unfounded jealousy was the cause of the crime.

The news we gave ten days ago of the alliance between Brazil and Chile in the Empire's time is only now beginning to attract the attention of our colleagues. News of offensive and defensive alliances was current yesterday. It is the same old tune as in monarchical Europe.

H. M. ship Cleopatra has left Rio for a short run up the coast.

We have seen a copy of a highly flattering testimonial to Captain Wahlman, of the steamer Uruguay, and his officers and crew, signed by the following cabin passengers on her last voyage out: J C Winn, F A Roux, A McMillan, P Olsson, J F Oals.

We feel great pleasure in welcoming our distinguished friend General Osborne, who has arrived from Paraguay, and is, we are happy to see, in excellent health. He reports everything going ahead in Paraguay. The heat up there is positive enjoyment compared with the frightful stew down here.

We are requested to announce the fact that Dr. Haddon of Dublin is to deliver three lectures, on the various offerings mentioned in the book of Leviticus, and the typical references to Christ contained in them. These interesting lectures will be given in the Lecture Hall of the American Church on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights at 8 o'clock. They are open and free to all who desire to attend them.

The camp news yesterday included a wail from Azul about the severe drought that prevails there; the cows are all as thin as if fed on Anti-fat instead of grass. In Tuyu a poor little child accidentally set fire to his clothes, and has gone to heaven. In San Nicolas now the collective mind of the place is fixed on new roads and machines for making them. In Mercedes the Census is the topic of the day. In Bragado they are making the same sporting offers for thrashing machines as Richard the Third did for a horse on the historic field of Bosworth. They are also bad with small-pox. In Chivilcoy the public are unanimous as to the new gas-works being the greatest of fiascos.

In reply to a query as to what the real temperature was on the 21st instant, when we erroneously gave it at a hundred and five (it touched this at Bahia Blanca), we beg to say that the thermometer on the date named only touched a little over ninety Fahrenheit in the shade; it has not gone over ninety-three in the shade this season as yet.

The City Commissioners gave the Lord Mayor his first fall over the City Budget on Friday. His lordship waxed warm in praise of his project to widen Calle Reconquista at the fleabite cost of 1,500,000 dollars, but Alderman Mayer very properly replied that there was no such sum available for widening streets or any other costly works; and the house at once pitched out the motion. The Lord Mayor must give up his "delirio de grandezas" for years to come. It is madness to think of anything but the strictest economy.

To oblige Benson, the actor, or rather the numerous friends he appears to have in the Plate, we acknowledge the receipt of another note about him, stating that he calls neither the Archbishop of Canterbury nor a Hampshire clergyman father, but that the world is indebted to Mr. William Benson, of Tunbridge Wells, Kent, for giving being to the histrionic gentleman we have contributed to make famous in Buenos Aires the last few days. "Basta de Benson."

More Almanacks! The loveliest girl face we have yet seen on the shoals of pictorial almanacks sent to us this year is that on Messrs. Kerr and Co's., the great thread makers, sent to us yesterday by Mr. Symes, of 761 Calle Moreno, their energetic agent.

We hear that Mr. Harry Etherington proprietor of the "Alhambra", is making stupendous preparations for advertising his Carnival Dances. In addition to a large number of posters twelve feet long and ten feet high, he promises a display of "the most beautiful advertisements you have ever seen", and we own we are curious to see these wonders of lithography. They have been specially designed and printed in England, and Mr. Etherington has our best wishes for the success of his enterprising venture.

That most popular and best of amateur actors, Professor Martin, is getting up a performance for the benefit of the Irish Orphanage. Every English-speaking man, woman and child in town will be glad to see our inimitable friend on the boards again. How many nights of fun and laughter do we not owe him!

The divorce case in which Mr. Parnell is about to figure will create a far greater sensation than the dreary Commission. His quondam fast friend, Captain O'Shea is the petitioner. See another column.

The Rev. M. P. Ferguson will preach on 26th inst., at San Jorge, Balcarce, on 2nd prox. at La Elvira, Bahia Blanca, on 9th prox. at Espartillar and Santa Elena.

We were favoured yesterday with a sample of cord made from the new plant "ibera", which grows in profusion in the Interior. Hemp is a mere spider's thread in strength compared with this new material. The strongest man can not snap the thinnest thread of it that has been steeped in water.

We were asked yesterday if Povril (solidified soup), now so popular in England, is to be had here. We are quite unable to say; but, perhaps, some of our readers in the meat line can tell us.

Oh! We said yesterday that the Electric Light had still an underground leg to stand on, though the New Yorkers have finished it above ground. The following paragraph from our "tocayo" in New York tells, however, a different tale:—"Explosions in the subways designed to carry the electric wires underground are becoming alarmingly numerous. The cause is supposed to be the filtering in of gas from leaky mains, which is exploded by a casual spark coming sometimes from Electricity. Last night without the least warning, a considerable length of pavement, amounting to several tons weight, rose many feet in the air, amid a geyser of flame. Many pedestrians had their clothes and their persons injured by the subsequent fall of debris. Experts having testified that no insulation can permanently and infallibly confine electricity under a high tension, the gas interests are elated, and the public bewildered between a dislike of gloomy nights and a fear of sudden and mysterious death."

The London Standard says that Princess Maud of Wales will accompany Prince Ernest of Schleswig-Holstein-Sonderburg-Augustenburg, brother of the Empress of Germany.

Barcelona is said to be full of Argentine coppers as well as Genoa and Milan. Fully half the amount coined has found its way to Europe; but they say the export is now stopped, as the "cambistas" in Europe will no longer take them.

We note with great pleasure a very interesting article in the Contemporary Review, from the pen of Mr. M. G. Mulhall F.S.S.

The fooleries of Carnival will begin on Sunday, the 16th prox. As yet the preparations are exclusively in the masked ball direction. The general public have no money for Carnival this year.

The River Plate Times says: — "We are sorry to hear that the state of Mr. James Trimble is still dangerous. Some of the newspapers having asserted that Mr. Trimble carried a weapon which he first made use of in the unfortunate struggle, we are glad to be able to contradict this statement, as we have been assured Mr. Trimble neither carried nor made use of any weapon whatever."

A boy of 16, named Vigil, son of a trader in Paysandu, blew his brains to the winds there one night last week.

The terribly hot weather has led to a suggestion for a change in men's attire. A La Plata colleague says that the flowing dress of the Chinese would be just the thing. So it would; but where is the man with iron enough in his soul to lead the way and go on the Bolsa in the first cool suit of Celestial toggery?

The French Legation will be moved to-morrow to No. 1563 Calle Alsina.

Forty-three cartmen were "run in" yesterday for obstructing traffic in Calle Rivadavia. Half the secret of the never-ending blocks-up in the streets lies with these fellows, who, oftener than not, deliberately bring about a snag-up, as time is no object to them. A few hundred arrests and heavy fines amongst them will help greatly to relieve the street traffic.

The sound of your hammer at five in the morning or at nine at night, heard by a creditor, makes him easy six months longer; but if he sees you at a billiard table or hears your voice at a tav

This was a busy week enough in most circles, and the payments for produce and exchange were heavy. Gold was found short, they say, at the last moment when closing the first ring, at least some brokers reported it so. The banks were all crowded, and the collecting clerks through the town report the collections rather good. Discounts rule the same, from ten to eleven per cent. and gold at twelve per cent Exchange 47¾ London, and 5.01 Paris. People who hold paper money are puzzled what to do with it; if they do not buy Cedulas, and people with gold have to leave it in account current in the banks at three per cent. per annum, or invest in gold stocks, which are extremely scarce in the market, all first-class gold stocks being at a very high premium. £19 was offered to-day for English Bank of River Plate shares and refused, the holder asking £20. The increasing of the capital of the Anglo-Argentine Bank offers an opportunity to get some shares of this young and growing bank at par. As for Southern Railway shares and London and River Plate Bank shares, they are not to be had in this market. A small sale of ten shares of Banco de Italia, with right to new shares, but ex-dividend, was made to-day. Price paid 310 fuertes gold.

Money in Montevideo is not so tight as here, and "pagarés" are discounted by the banks at eight per cent. per annum, but money on stocks down there is very dear, as some of the banks refuse to lend money on any Montevidean stock.

The Malecon del Norte and Maldonado Port Company have received an order from Government for the construction of a channel from the mouth of the Maldonado to the north channel of the port of this city. The channel is to have a width of 100 metres and a minimum depth of 5 m. 30. In return the company will receive as payment the lands reclaimed by them from the river by extending the river wall 1000 metres to the north of the Puerto Maldonado. The reclaimed land is valued at one dollar per square metre.

The profits of the La Plata Mortgage Bank for 1889 are stated to be 3,287,380 dollars m/n paper and 56,724 dollars gold The ordinary one per cent. commission gave 2,370,732 dollars; the extra interest collected in delayed payments amounted to no less than 1,152,203 dollars from June 30th, 1888, to December 31st, 1889 So called "cupones beneficiados" amounted to 216,560 dollars.

During the fortnight ending the 15th instant, the slaughter at the corrales amounted to 14,917 steers and 4668 calves. The arrivals of cattle were 30,681. Nearly four thousand of this number were sold for "saladeros" and 1836 for "invernada." On the 4th 5005 animals remained over, say five days' supply. Fat animals are in demand at steady prices. Mestizos are quoted outside at thirty to thirty-five dollars per head. Wethers are scarce and sell at three dollars to 3.50, if in fat condition.

Mr. Salustiano Espeleta, the well-known Bolsa broker, was welcomed to day on his return after a lengthy trip to Europe. Before leaving for Europe last year, he cast the horoscope of the crisis in stocks on 'Change. His words have come true with a vengeance. He finds a wonderful falling-off in Bolsa affairs and in business in general, but he had clear proofs to-day that his popularity in the hall is as great as ever.

Fresh rumors were spread to-day about an immediate resumption of the much talked of loan negociations. The loan has been announced so often that people refuse to believe any longer in the familiar bugbear.

According to late telegrams, last night's heavy rain spread over Tucuman, Ranchos, San Nicolas, San Pedro, Parana, Bahia Blanca, Patagones, Sierra Chica, Del Carril, Ayacucho, Bragado, Alvear, Juarez, Mar del Plata, Hinojo, Coronel Dorrego, Tapalque, 25 de Mayo, Lincoln, Junin, 9 de Julio, Larrea, Chivilcoy, Veeino, Necochea, Las Flores, Balcarce, Azul, Tandil, Rauch, Dolores and Olavarria.

The representatives of the La Sanitaria and La Argentina companies, engaged in the works connecting the sewers with the houses, and holding already contracts for the connection of five thousand houses, sent a note to the Minister of the Interior to-day, requesting that the representative of the City Improvement Works Company be ordered to allow the execution of the external works of connection with those properties, the plans of which have been approved. They argue that, once the plans approved, the properties in question should be connected within the term fixed in Art. 6th o the Regulations of the Works, free of al cost, of all imposition, of all conditions, s far as the house-owners are concerned. They claim the same permission for these properties the sewers of which have been completed according to approved plans and under the superintendence of the Technical Inspection Bureau. In about four hundred houses the drainage works have been completed by the La Sanitaria and La Argentina in strict accordance with all the regulations; yet the owners or tenants of these houses are obliged to avail of the old wells by means of the usual connections, entailing not only much expense but also danger to the public health. In answer to this series of serious complaints, Mr. Medici, representative of the company that holds the lease of the City Improvement Works, replies that if he grants such permission to make the connections without collecting the outstandings due to the Company, it will be impossible to deal with obstinate debtors. The President of the Board of Management of the Works is of opinion that these outstandings will remain more or less in the same condition as the future quotas of the tariff, and that with the endorsement of the Registry office the Company will be able to collect the back debts according to the old tariff up to July 1889, the provisional tariff up to 1st September 1889, and the final tariff up to 15th inst., date of approval of the last registry. Should the Government endorse this opinion, Dr. Palacios thinks that the City Improvement Works Company can raise no objections, and that the connections which are the subject of discussion can be effected immediately; in fact, as the President of the Board of Management very truly states, it is the vital interest of the Company that the works be completed as soon as possible, when the quotas for those services will come into force.

Business ruled very dull at the second ring. Gold ruled bullish and closed 118 o/o premium for Monday. National Bank shares were quoted at 217. Cedulas F fell away to 62.80. Puerto Madero 40 o/o scrip changed hands at 21, Catalinas fell to 49½.

We take the following from the Financial News, of Dec. 31st:—

"The Bank of England directors yesterday raised their standard rate of discount from five to six per cent., the former quotation having been current since Sept. 26th, while the last occasion when the official standard was advanced to six per cent. was on January 30th, 1882, consequent on the withdrawal of a large amount of gold from London for Paris at the time of the crisis on the continental Bourses. Yesterday's movement is understood also to have been brought about by Paris considerations; but this time other centres are also acting on our market. Berlin, Buenos Aires and New York are all sources of disquiet, and only when Paris was added to the list was an advance to six per cent. deemed necessary. And the step does not appear to have been taken a moment too soon. On Saturday a few sovereigns were taken from our store, and a further and larger outflow was threatened, with the result that an early meeting of the directors of the Bank was held yesterday, and six per cent. made the official rate. The Paris cheque exchange recovered to 25.19, but should the Bank of France raise their rate from three to four per cent. (a step regarded as almost certain), the position would be practically the same as on Saturday. The Bank of England cannot with safety allow further gold to be withdrawn, and every step to protect the bullion will doubtless be taken, even to clearing the market of supplies after the dividend disbursements next week, and thus keeping up rates to near the Bank standard, affecting foreign exchanges in our favor, and attracting gold here. Germany still wants the metal, and the Berlin rate of exchange remains at 20.32, notwithstanding yesterday's developments; but a rise in the Berlin Bank rate from five per cent. is now anticipated, in view of the stringency on the Bourse. New York is a likely taker of gold, yesterday's telegrams reporting great difficulty in selling drafts on London and a very unsteady and weak exchange on London. Buenos Aires requirements are estimated at about a million; but houses here interested in Argentine finance have great power in preventing movements to that country at critical periods, and bullion might be taken for that quarter from Brazil.

Notice.
We are always willing to take charge of ordinary letters (but not registered letters) addressed to our care, and these, as our readers well know, we advertise in our columns; this, however, we are unable to do with the enormous number of newspapers sent to THE STANDARD for new comers and others; we have now such an immense accumulation of these that the receptacles devoted to their reception in our office are over-crowded. We must, therefore, beg all persons expecting newspapers to call for them at their earliest convenience, in justice both to themselves and THE STANDARD.
